FROM THE PASTOR

Tomorrow, Monday, January 16, 2023, the nation celebrates Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., day. This day is more than just a national holiday. Reverend Dr. King was an individual who believed in racial equality and was firm in standing up for what he believed in. He had a dream and refused to back down from that dream that all brothers and sisters could live peacefully and harmoniously. He died for all that. This is an example to us that we must be firm in faith, willing to stand up for what we believe in and a strong willingness to pay the ultimate price if necessary. Fr. Henry Hoffman is currently living in the residence for retired priests at Immaculate Heart of Mary. He is a priest of the Oratory of St. Philip Neri who is looking into diocesan priesthood. He is hoping to incardinate into the Archdiocese of Cincinnati. Fr. Henry is here temporarily and during his time here will attend some meetings here and there as well as concelebrate/celebrate Mass to get a small feel for what diocesan priesthood is about. If you see him, introduce yourself. Fr. Henry, welcome to our family of parishes!

Fr. Steve Angi

If anyone wishes to have a Mass said: Please fill out an envelope on the back table of the church (St Jerome Church), Include an offering of $5.00 in the envelope, per Mass, please.
.....

REMEMBER there is a large blue can inside the side door of the church before you go up the stairs to the sacristy. It is designated for collecting Nonperishable food for Father Bob at Resurrection Church. Please remember the people in his parish. We are now back in the season where Father Bob cannot accept Can Goods or any Food Item that will Freeze! Father Bob would appreciate any gift.

We have Poinsettia's in the cry room. Any one who would like to have them are welcome, they are free to a good home.

ATTENTION: Beginning February 6,2023

NEW WEEKDAY MASS SCHEDULE

THANK YOU!

FATHER CARL

DEEPEN YOUR UNDERSTANDING OF THE MASS - Archbishop Dennis Schnurr invites you to join him for a special study of The Mass video series from Bishop Robert Barron's Word on Fire Ministries. Each Sunday from January 8 through February 12, Archbishop Schnurr will email you one episode of the series along with his own brief insights, which you can watch on your own time and at your own pace, to explore the wonder of the Mass. Each episode of the series is only about 25 minutes. This is a great way to join fellow Catholics across the archdiocese to deepen your understanding of the Mass and experience it in a whole new way. Visit catholicaoc.org/theMass to sign up for free.

This is a Christmas poem that someone ask Father to share in our bulletin:

Christmas in Heaven

I see the countless Christmas trees, around the world below, with tiny lights, like heaven's stars, reflecting on the snow.

This sight is so spectacular, please wipe away that tear, For I am spending Christmas, with Jesus Christ this year.

I hear the many Christmas songs, that people hold so dear, But the sound of music can't compare with the Christmas choir up here. For I have no words to tell you, the joy their voices bring, for it's beyond description to hear the angels sing.

I know how much you miss me, I see the pain inside your heart, for I am spending Christmas with Jesus Christ this year.

I can't tell you of the splendor, and the peace here in this place, Can you imagine Christmas, with our Savior, face to face?

I'll ask Him to lift your spirit, as I tell Him of your love, So then pray for one another, as you lift your eyes above.

Please let your hearts be joyful, and let your spirits sing, For I am spending Christmas in heaven, and I'm walking with the King!
