What's Happening at St Jerome:

Tues 4/9 7:30 pm Mass at St Jerome Church

FROM THE PASTOR

During the month of April, there will be commissioning ceremonies in each of our family of parishes for our Mental Wellness Ministry. They have been meeting since last year and training. The Mental Health Ministry is an outreach ministry that follows the steps of Missionary Discipleship to walk with persons experiencing mental health challenges and to create a community free from the stigma that is often associated with mental illness. In the months ahead, these individuals will be of service to our family of parishes to help us pray, accompany those hurting and suffering and offering resources for individuals experiencing mental health challenges. Lisa Averion, the Director of Disabilities Ministry for the Archdiocese of Cincinnati, and Catholic Charities have been training our ministers and helping them to develop visions and goals that are unique to our family of parishes. We are one of two family of parishes that are a pilot for this ministry. The ministers will be commissioned at the 10:00 Mass at Guardian Angels on Sunday, April 7, the 9:30 Mass on Sunday, April 14 at Immaculate Heart of Mary and the 11:00 Mass at St. John Fisher on April 28. Please pray for the success of this vital ministry.

A special thanks to all who made our Holy Week Services in our family of parishes so prayerfully and deeply spiritually enriching.

Fr. Steve

Anyone who still has a Rice Bowl out please return by Sat and Sun April 13th and 14th, Thank you. That will be the last weekend to return. Thank You!

Today Sunday April 7th, is Divine Mercy Sunday. Liturgically the Easter Octave has always been centered on the theme of Divine Mercy and forgiveness. Divine Mercy Sunday, therefore, points us to the merciful love of God that lies behind the whole Paschal Mystery — the whole mystery of the death, burial and resurrection of Christ — made present for us in the Eucharist. In this way, it also sums up the whole Easter Octave. As Pope John Paul II pointed out in his Regina Caeli address on Divine Mercy Sunday, 1995: "the whole octave of Easter is like a single day," and the Octave Sunday is meant to be the day of "thanksgiving for the goodness God has shown to man in the whole Easter mystery."

Given the liturgical appropriateness of the title "Divine Mercy Sunday" for the Octave Day of Easter, therefore, the Holy See did not give this title to the Second Sunday of Easter merely as an "option," for those dioceses who happen to like that sort of thing! Rather, the decree issued on May 5, 2000, by the Sacred Congregation for Divine Worship and The Discipline of the Sacraments clearly states: "the Supreme Pontiff John Paul II has graciously determined that in the Roman Missal, after the title Second Sunday of Easter, there shall henceforth be added the appellation 'or [that is] Divine Mercy Sunday'...".

Divine Mercy Sunday, therefore, is not an optional title for this solemnity; rather, Divine Mercy is the integral name for this Feast Day. In a similar way, the Octave Day of the Nativity of Our Lord was named by the Church "The Feast of the Mother of God."
