FROM THE PASTOR

Christ has given the church the great commission—to go into the nations, baptize, and teach them all that Christ has commanded. We are to evangelize. We can evangelize by offering a simple invitation. If you have the opportunity, take the time to get to know people and offer to read the Bible with them. In essence, it's important to develop a relationship and some rapport with the people you're trying to evangelize. You're not a car salesman but rather your part of bringing someone, God willing, into a life-long covenantal bond with Christ.

In our St. Gregory the Great Family of Parishes, there is now a complete Evangelization Team. Jay Mather is our Director of Evangelization. Steve Von Hoene is the Associate Director of Youth Evangelization. Tina Ramundo and Kay Froehlich are the Associate Directors of Children's Evangelization. Rose Ann Thomas is the Associate Director of Adult Evangelization. Connie Wehmeyer is the Pastoral Associate of St. John Fisher. This team will be setting a direction and vision for Evangelization in our Family of Parishes that is comprehensive, personal and far reaching.

Keep this team in your daily prayers. Pray that Christ would give you the opportunity to tell others about the wonderful gospel of Christ.

Fr. Steve

“The purpose of life isn’t to rush here and there mindlessly doing all manner of things, but rather, to do the essential things that enable you to become all you were created to be.”
