What's Happening at St Jerome:

Tues 9/24 7:30 pm Mass at St Jerome Church

FROM THE PASTOR

Active and retired local law enforcement officers, firefighters, and emergency personnel will be recognized for their faithful commitment and self-sacrifice at the Blue Mass, which I will celebrate next Sunday, September 29, at the Cathedral Basilica of St. Peter in Chains. People of all faiths are invited to attend the Mass and to join in expressing gratitude to the men and women who work to keep our communities safe. Members of the public safety community are encouraged to attend in uniform and to bring their families with them. During the Mass, blessings will be bestowed upon all who contribute to the public health and safety of our communities, and prayers will be offered for those who have given their lives in the line of duty. The readers and gift bearers at the Mass will be members of the public safety community, and a multi-jurisdictional honor guard will post the colors.

The Blue Mass, referring to the blue uniforms that law enforcement and other first responders often wear, dates back to 1934 and is a venerable tradition in many dioceses. This Mass calls forth in us a greater awareness of, and gratitude for, the lives of those who serve us so faithfully. Our lives are a gift from God, given to us that we might in turn give our lives in service to Him and to others. This truth is one virtually ingrained into the lives of our police, fire and rescue personnel. Day in and day out they put their lives on the line for us: "Greater love has no man than this: that a man lay down his life for his friends." Say a prayer for those who serve us day by day.

Fr. Steve

St Jerome's Annual Pet Blessing- Sunday

October 6, at Noon. Bring your furry, feathered, or scaly friends—whether they bark, meow, chirp, or wag their tails! Our pet blessing service is a joyful celebration of the bond between humans and their beloved animals. We'll gather by the church's back door to offer prayers, gratitude, and blessings for our faithful companions. All pets are welcome, big or small!

Come share in this heartwarming tradition as we honor the creatures who bring so much joy to our lives.

If anyone would like to become a Lector, a Server or a Communion Minister please contact Father or Debbie at the rectory office between Monday-Thursday 11-3pm. 513-231-7042. If you get the answering machine, please leave a message and we will call back or talk to us at church.

“We underestimate ourselves, but God never does. He knows exactly what we are capable of in collaboration with him. Allow God to raise up the saint in you.”

- Matthew Kelly
