What's Happening at St Jerome:

Tues 11/19 7:30 pm Mass at St Jerome Church

FROM THE PASTOR:

Every time the call comes out via phone, text and email, "This is the Cincy Alert System. Anyone available for an armed barricade, search warrant" or a plethora of scenarios, I always ponder how this SWAT situation will end and could this be the end for any of us responding. The concept of the end of the world and of our lives is one that often crosses our minds. Some ponder it deeply, while others may feel it looms nearer than ever.

It is imperative to delve deeper into the teachings of Jesus as in today's gospel about the end times. Jesus often imparts his lessons through parables, metaphorical narratives that require interpretation and reflection. It's crucial to adopt a mindset of faith over fear when contemplating the end times. Instead of fixating on deciphering signs and speculating about its arrival, focus on nurturing a steadfast trust in God. Embrace the assurance that if the end does come, it will unfold according to divine will. Rather than succumbing to anxiety induced by sensationalized media or interpretations, maintain a posture of hopeful anticipation for the promised return of Jesus.

In wondering about the end, live your life with purpose and reverence, trusting in God's sovereignty over the future. Instead of being consumed by fear or obsession with the end times, prioritize spiritual growth, love and compassion. Ultimately, regardless of when or how the end unfolds, maintaining unwavering faith and devotion is paramount. So, carry on with your journey, embracing the divine guidance, and living a life that reflects the values of faith, hope, and love.

Fr. Steve
