What's Happening at St Jerome:

Tues 11/12 7:30 pm Mass at St Jerome Church

FROM THE PASTOR:

A woman once told me that when she goes shopping to Trader Joe's and the cashier rings up the sale, she feels a little uncomfortable about being pressured. When the cashier asks if she would like to donate to charity, she wants to say, "no," but after taking mental notes of how many pairs of eyes are watching that prompts her to say, "yes."

Jesus called his disciples over for an important teaching moment in today's gospel in which the poor widow says "yes" by putting in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. Many people made offerings, but this widow made a sacrifice to God. Beyond her duty, without pressure of eyes watching, she laid down a sacrifice that cost everything she had.

While many rich people dropped large offerings that would loudly clink the treasury boxes, the poor widow's two copper coins were probably too lightweight to be fully audible. Nevertheless, Jesus saw and heard her offering. The woman was under no obligation to offer it. This was a voluntary offering after all. The widow's sacrificial offering points us toward the life of sacrifice Jesus modeled for us. Jesus offered himself willingly. He spared nothing, and it cost him everything.

Jesus reminds us that what is most important to God is not the quantity of the gift, but the generosity of the one doing the giving. This powerful woman of God gave an offering that resounded louder than the heaps of coins dropped into the treasury by others. In the same way, we are encouraged to give of ourselves in a way that makes an impact, even if others never see us give. The poor widow quietly offered her whole life knowing it was not a religious requirement, knowing she would receive no praise in return, knowing her offering was insignificant in monetary value, and knowing her limited ability and her poverty. Yet she offered it all anyway. Could we do as the poor widow?

Fr. Steve

If anyone wishes to have a Mass said: Please fill out an envelope on the back table of the church (St Jerome Church), Include an offering of $5.00 in the envelope, per Mass, please. We can say a Mass for someone every day.

Thanks to everyone's generosity, we have reached the necessary funds for the repairs of the tree and the light at the far end of the parking lot. We encourage everyone to continue contributing to the weekly collection. The repair of the parking lot light is currently on hold as we are awaiting a part that has been ordered and should arrive in 3-4 weeks. The work will be carried out by Curry Electric, the same family-owned company used by GA. They recently prepared the light pole for the new pole and light. Additionally, they trimmed the branches around the existing tree, near the other light. This should significantly enhance the lighting until the other light is back in operation.
