What's Happening at St Jerome:

Tues 1/14 7:30 pm Mass at St Jerome Church

FROM THE PASTOR:

Driving between our family of parishes, I couldn't help but notice the number of Christmas trees that had already been tossed to the curb. I suppose I shouldn't have been so surprised. We live in a culture that is fast paced, overly commercialized, and constantly moving us on to the next event. Our economy identifies us as consumers whose mission is to buy and spend. The entertainment industry has us believing that we are nothing more than spectators whose only mission is to tune in to the latest and greatest movie, TV show, or sporting event. This is far different from our mission as followers of Jesus Christ.

Today is the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. It marks the end of the Christmas Season. We are told in our gospel today that the Spirit of God descends upon Jesus like a dove, and God's voice is heard saying: "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." What a wonderful endorsement for Jesus to begin his public ministry! The voice from heaven reveals Jesus' identity and this is the starting point for all that he will undertake through his ministry of teaching, preaching, healing, challenging, self-giving, and ultimately suffering, dying and rising. Most of us would run away from a ministry if we were called to it thinking: "Who am I to do this? I am not qualified." Yet, it is because Jesus knows who he is that he does what he does. If you think that you are not qualified and therefore off the hook for a mission, all of us, by virtue of our own baptisms, have also been marked as God's beloved sons and daughters and our identity and mission is the same as Christ's. The way in which the mission is carried out in our modern world will, of course, be very different from the way Christ carried it out over two thousand years ago but the mission itself has not changed. We are called, like Jesus, to bring about God's kingdom of justice, love, healing, liberation and peace through whatever ways and means are possible. Know that through our own baptism God has named us as his beloved sons and daughters and that like Jesus, all that we undertake must flow from who and what we are – God's beloved.

Fr. Steve

"You are the perfect mix of talents and abilities to fulfill the mission that God has in mind for you. There is no point worrying about what talents and abilities other people have. If you don't have them, you don't need them for your mission."

- Matthew Kelly

Message from Fr. Carl:

Thanks to Fr Bob Keller and Fr Jack Kroeger for helping at St. Jerome's During 2024.

I (Fr. Carl) wish to Thank all the Employees and the Volunteers who work together at St Jerome's Church. May God Bless all of You and do not forget your Christmas gift in the Sacristy!
