What's Happening at St Jerome:

Tues 3/18 7:30 pm Mass at St Jerome Church
Sundays Lent NOON Stations will be prayed at St Jerome Church

FROM THE PASTOR:

Our gospel for this Sunday, the Second Sunday of Lent, is the Transfiguration. Jesus brings his disciples away from the noise and business of the market place and takes them up a mountain. This is not unusual in itself. We know from the gospels that Jesus himself often went to the mountain top to pray on his own. While they are on the mountain, something very strange and unusual happens. Jesus is changed in a very dramatic way; he is transformed beyond all recognition. Imagine the surprise and shock of those who were with Jesus. Yet even with this amazing experience, Peter is still able to proclaim, "Lord it is wonderful for us to be here."

As we continue our Lenten journey and Jesus continues his own journey towards Jerusalem, he knows what he is facing. He will be betrayed, denied, condemned and crucified. Perhaps he feels and senses the disciples fear and anxiety and so wants to reassure them. So he gives them a glimpse of the things to come. This brief glimpse of Jesus in all his glory is also meant for us today. Perhaps like the disciples, we too experience fear, doubt and even a lack of faith. Perhaps we too need to be encouraged and strengthened by Jesus, especially as we continue our journey through Lent. We too need know that our prayer, fasting and almsgiving is not an end in itself or that it is all done in vain. We are heading towards the resurrection and the new life of Easter, but we have a distance to go yet. The experience of Jesus transformed offers each of us taste of what lies ahead of us. If we share in the suffering and passion of Jesus, we will also share in his resurrection.

This is the hope in which we are asked to have faith as we make our way through Lent. When we are tempted to give up and give in, let us look to Jesus changed and transformed. May see in him the future that is promised to us, not only at Easter but in the fullness of God's Kingdom. As we continue to make our way through Lent, let us do what the voice of God says to each of us; "This is my Son, Listen to him."

Message from Fr Carl

The Stations of the Cross will be prayed at St Jerome Church on the Sundays of Lent. Stations will begin at noon. Please join us as we pray the Stations.

Reminder-Opposite our statue of the Sacred Heart we have a table with a collection basket on it. It is there so that you may put your offering in it as you enter our church. On the fifth weekend of the month, we ask for donations to St Vincent DePaul. Then there are two collection baskets on that table. Please support these appeals generously. Thank-You.

Fr. Carl

We have put rice bowls on the back table. For anyone who wishes to take one or two and save your change, There is a pamphlet inside of it explaining where the money goes to and prayers. At the end of Easter, you can turn them in here and I will forward the money on to the Archdiocese to the appropriate department.
