FROM THE PASTOR:

This weekend, we celebrate Mother's Day. Mother's Day is marked by celebration and thankfulness, honoring the special women in our lives that we call "mom." The day brings forth wonderful memories of the mom that raised us, loved us, taught us, and nurtured us. However, for others, it's a painful time as it reminds them about the mother they wish they'd had. In either case, mothers have an impact on their children's lives that will last forever. Motherhood is a calling and not a hobby. Mothers make the home a safe place, a place where we are taught to work hard, where we are corrected when we stray, and where we are celebrated as unique children created by God. Mothers fully embrace their calling as mothers. Mothers believe there is nothing that they would rather do than invest in our lives. Mothering isn't the kind of job that produces a tangible monetary salary.

There are hard days being a mom. There are days when kids get sick, they don't take naps, they have meltdowns in public, or things just generally get chaotic. Mothers embrace it whole-heartedly. A mother cannot be a mother your child needs while constantly wishing you were somewhere else. Mothers believe "Anything worth doing is hard." Motherhood is humbling and it does take sacrifice. Those who are willing to walk that road will reap great rewards. Thanks to all our mothers for their influence and impact in our lives!

Fr. Steve

A Prayer for Our Mothers

Almighty God, look with love upon our Mothers.
Reward them for their faithfulness to their Husband and for all they do in raising and helping
Each one of us as we began our life on earth,
And mature through teenage years to adulthood,
As they have loved us, may we also love them; for
They are your gift to us. This we Pray in Christ Jesus, our Lord. Amen
