FROM THE PASTOR:

This Monday, May 26, is Memorial Day. Every Memorial Day, we gather to honor and to pray for all those who have made the supreme sacrifice, those who have died in the service of this great nation. May their examples inspire us as we also pray for our men and women in uniform who are who deployed throughout the world. Many of us may recall from our childhood History Classes that Memorial Day was originally known as Decoration Day. It was established to honor those fallen in battle during our nation's Civil War. However, today Memorial Day honors those who have died in the wars that have taken place since the Civil War.

We owe these and all fallen heroes and the families who mourn them our gratitude for their sacrifices and our prayers for their eternal repose. To remember those who have died in war means also to commit ourselves to the cause for which they died. To honor their memories, we too must also be resolved to serve our country in some way, to safeguard its promise, and to accept responsibility for its destiny. As President Lincoln spoke in his Gettysburg Address: "that these dead shall not have died in vain." Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ taught us, and showed us that to lay down one's life for a friend is the greatest love the world will ever know. It is the capacity to transcend oneself, to make a gift of oneself to and for another. Our God-given rights and freedoms are not about having the ability to do as we please; rather, they are about choosing to do good in ways which are pleasing to the Lord. It means that we can and do assume responsibility for our actions, in striving each day to be people of virtue and never choosing to do evil.

As Americans, we honor the sacrifices of those who died in the service of our nation and whose sacrifices have won for us the blessings of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. May the souls of all the faithful departed, especially those fallen in the service of this great nation, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Fr. Steve
