FROM THE PASTOR:

The Eucharist stands as the central sacrament in the Catholic faith, embodying the profound mystery of Christ's presence among believers. This weekend, we celebrate First Holy Communion for students at Guardian Angels at 10:30 Saturday, and at Immaculate Heart of Mary at 3:00, 5:00 and 11:30 and next Saturday at 3:00. St. John Fisher celebrated their First Holy Communion last weekend. This event is a cause of great joy for all of us in the St. Gregory the Great Family of Parishes. We rejoice with these young ones and their families.

For children, receiving their First Holy Communion marks a pivotal moment in their spiritual journey. It is a sacramental milestone that signifies their initiation into the fullness of Christian life and community.

Through their participation in the Eucharist, children encounter Jesus in a tangible way, experiencing his love and presence in the simple elements of bread and wine. This encounter deepens their relationship with Christ and strengthens their connection to the wider Christian community. It instills in them a sense of belonging and identity as members of the body of Christ, called to live out their faith in service to others. In receiving the body and blood of Christ, they are nourished and empowered to live as faithful witnesses to the gospel, spreading the message of love and redemption to all whom they encounter. The First Holy Communion is not just a one-time event but marks the beginning of a lifelong journey of faith and discipleship.

This momentous occasion has been preceded by a period of preparation, during which the children have learned about the significance of the Eucharist and its role in the life of the Church. We thank our St. Gregory the Great Catechists and the staff of Guardian Angels and Immaculate Heart of Mary schools who have journeyed with these young ones as they prepare to encounter Christ in the Eucharist. We equally thank the parents of these children for fulfilling the promises they made at the baptism of their children to bring up in the practice of the faith. We thank them for their support and accompaniment. Congratulations to all our First Communicants!
