THE PASTOR

The gospel for this Sunday is the “Doubting Thomas” story. Thomas is a doubter; a stubborn doubter who requests specific action in exchange for his belief. We all get that, don't we? Seeing is believing. The eleven who were present when Jesus showed up had it easy in that regard. It's a nice story. It seems a little simplistic. Early in the gospel passage, we see this line: “On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were ...”

A little later, after Thomas expresses his desire to touch and see Jesus in order to believe: “Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked ...”

When and why do we lock doors? Do those who feel safe and secure in the care of a loving Savior who has just risen from the dead have any reason to lock doors? It seems Thomas may not have been the only one with questions and concerns. Jesus returns to be with all of the disciples on this second evening. He does not seek out Thomas alone. Perhaps Jesus knew that each of them needed His presence and reassurance as young believers.

This week: Identify some places in your life where locked doors exist. Are you finding yourself to be locked in or locked out? Ask Jesus in prayer to help you to move beyond the locked doors to a wonderful life guided by his presence, courage and love.

Message from Fr Carl

Pope Leo has asked us to be very generous to the Catholic Overseas Aid Collection next weekend April 18th and April 19th.

Sunday, April 19th at the 9:30AM Mass, the newborn Charlotte Chapman will be baptized and welcomed into the Church.

We need Lectors- especially for Tuesday at 7:30pm and Thursday at 10:00am. We need extra help. If you feel that you would like to help, Please give us a call at the office 513-231-7042 or talk to us after Mass. We could also use servers.

Reminder-Opposite our statue of the Sacred Heart we have a table with a collection basket on it. It is there so that you may put your offering in it as you enter our church. On the fifth weekend of the month, we ask for donations to St Vincent DePaul. Then there are two collection baskets on that table. Please support these appeals generously. Thank-You.

A Prayer for Divine Mercy Sunday

Pray this— with an open and trusting heart. Lord of all mercy

On this day You open the depths of Your heart to every soul that comes to You.

I come not because I deserve it, but because You promised — and Your promises do not fail.

Take everything, I have carried in shame.

Wash me in the ocean of Your mercy.

Let me leave this day renewed in Your mercy

Jesus, I trust in You.

Amen.

The world will teach them not to.”
