THE PASTOR

This Sunday, the Fourth Sunday of Easter, is referred to as “Good Shepherd” Sunday as the gospel refers to Jesus as the Good Shepherd. In the Gospel text of this Sunday the image Jesus uses for himself is that of a good shepherd who lovingly tends his flock. Jesus also calls himself the gate by which the sheep come and go from the sheepfold. All of this would have been familiar enough imagery for the nomadic and pastoral people who listened to Jesus. Jesus contrasts himself as the good shepherd with the thieves who deceive and do not lead the sheep along good paths. Jesus says clearly that what he comes to bring is life, and life to the full. What the thieves bring may look like life, but in fact brings spiritual death. That would include the unbridled pursuit of pleasure, accumulation and hoarding of goods, living for oneself and not for God and others in genuine and humble service; in short, living a life of vice and not of virtue.

Jesus speaks of himself as the leader of God’s flock, the Good Shepherd, walking in front of the sheep, as the way, the truth and the life for all those who are truly seeking to be in God’s sheepfold. Today, perhaps more than ever, in the face of so much loss of morality and direction in life, where apathy and mistrust abound in the social, political and even religious realms, we need to hear again the strong message of Jesus. The Lord is indeed our Good Shepherd, guiding us in right paths, giving us courage and strength even in our darkest moments, spreading a banquet for us and inviting us to dwell in God’s house forever.

The message of the Jesus today is applicable to all, the rich and the poor, the well and the infirm, the young and the old, leaders and followers, saints and sinners. No one is to be excluded from Jesus’ sheepfold, and all are lovingly invited to it.

The shepherd knows his sheep, Jesus says, and he knows each of us. Nothing is hidden from God’s sight, so we can never pretend to be other than what we are: a flock that has been loved into being. As individuals, endowed with free will, we are capable of straying from the fold. However, the good shepherd never leaves the flock untended, and is always seeking the return of the stray. Our Good Shepherd knows our needs, shares our experiences, and is in communion with his flock. Because of this, we have confidence that we are never left without the help of a loving and saving God.

Fr Steve

Message from Fr Carl

We need Lectors- especially for Tuesday at 7:30pm and Thursday at 10:00am. We need extra help. If you feel that you would like to help, Please give us a call at the office 513-231-7042 or talk to us after Mass. We could also use servers.

Reminder-Opposite our statue of the Sacred Heart we have a table with a collection basket on it. It is there so that you may put your offering in it as you enter our church. On the fifth weekend of the month, we ask for donations to St Vincent DePaul. Then there are two collection baskets on that table. Please support these appeals generously. Thank-You.

The Fourth Sunday of Easter marks the 63rd Anniversary of the World Day of Prayer for Vocations instituted by Pope Paul VI in 1964. Parishes are especially encouraged to include prayers for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and religious life in the general intercessions on that day and the homily may focus on vocations.

Pope Leo's Prayer Request for April

For priests in crisis.

Let us pray for priests going through moments of crisis in their vocation, that they may find the accompaniment they need and that communities may support them with understanding and prayer.

CATHOLIC FAMILY NIGHT AT GREAT AMERICAN BALLPARK! - You are invited to join Archbishop Casey and Catholics from across the archdiocese at Catholic Family Night at Great American Ballpark on Saturday, Sept. 5, 2026, which is the Saturday of Labor Day weekend. The Cincinnati Reds will play the Milwaukee Brewers that evening at 6:40 p.m. Discounted tickets are now on sale through Reds ticketing at this link: <https://www.gofevo.com/event/Archdiocesecincinnati22>. Catholic Family Night will include Mass prior to the game and, like last year, several in-game activities featuring members of our local Catholic community. More details will be announced soon.
