Message from Fr Carl
Announcement:

Father Carl is going to do the Anointing of the Sick on Tuesday, July 7th, during the, 7:30pm Mass at St Jerome Catholic Church.

We do have an Organist/cantor, Terry Wenninger starting on July 12. During the month of June, and first week of July, Eva Vandegrift will be filling in until Terry Can start.

Reminder-Opposite our statue of the Sacred Heart we have a table with a collection basket on it. It is there so that you may put your offering in it as you enter our church. On the fifth weekend of the month, we ask for donations to St Vincent DePaul. Then there are two collection baskets on that table. Please support these appeals generously. Thank-You.

CHRISTMAS IN JULY!!!! Red Envelopes for St Joseph's Catholic Church

You can fill 1,2 or 3 of these envelopes with cash for these Catholic Charities. (If you choose to WRITE A CHECK, MAKE THE CHECK PAYABLE TO ST JEROME CHURCH) Thank You!

PRAYER FOR 4TH OF JULY WEEKEND!

Heavenly Father,

On this day of celebration, we thank You for the gift of freedom and the blessings of our nation. Guide our leaders with wisdom, protect those who serve in defense of peace, and inspire all citizens to seek justice, mercy, and truth.

May we cherish the dignity of every person, care for the poor and vulnerable, and work together to build a land where Your love reigns.

Bless our families, our communities, and our country, that we may always walk in the light of Christ.

Through the intercession of Mary, the Immaculate Conception, patroness of the United States, keep us faithful to You and steadfast in hope.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen. ✝

THE PASTOR

On July 4, 1776, the Continental Congress of the thirteen British colonies declared their independence from British rule. Since then, the United States has annually celebrated its independence on this day.

On December 15, 1791, the United States Congress adopted the Bill of Rights, the first ten amendments to the U.S. Constitution that had governed the land since 1789. The very first amendment declares “Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof...” In 1802, President Thomas Jefferson wrote a letter to the Danbury Baptist Association in Connecticut in which he stated, “I contemplate with sovereign reverence that act of the whole American people which declared that their legislature should ‘make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof,’ thus building a wall of separation between Church & State.” The concept of the “separation of Church and State” has firmly endured in the United States, affording its citizens the freedom to worship as they choose.

While Independence Day is a national holiday, the Catholic Church in the United States, we are called to pray for our country but also urged to exhibit “solemn reverence” for the freedoms we enjoy as citizens of this remarkable nation.

As Catholics, it is our duty to allow our faith to shape who we are and then to engage in every form of civil discourse, including the enactment of laws. Faith is not something to be practiced solely at church; it must permeate who we are and influence everything we do. True freedom enables us to enjoy the blessings of life, liberty, and happiness. Christians’ life, liberty, and happiness cannot be detached from Christian citizenship. We have been endowed by our Creator with the right and duty to live and practice our faith openly in all aspects of our lives. We must strive to unite our will with God’s will, allowing our faith to shape our will, and then engage in civil discourse to shape our nation to better reflect the Kingdom of God.

As we celebrate our independence this weekend, reflect on the deeper meaning of independence. From a Christian perspective, “independence” is not the freedom to do what we want, when we want, because we want, but the freedom to do what we ought. True freedom is found only when we live in accordance with the will of God. This kind of freedom fosters internal liberty, and that liberty should become enshrined in everything we do and in every aspect of human life.

Happy Independence Day!

Fr Steve
