Message from Fr Carl:

Reminder-Opposite our statue of the Sacred Heart we have a table with a collection basket on it. It is there so that you may put your offering in it as you enter our church. On the fifth weekend of the month, we ask for donations to St Vincent DePaul. Then there are two collection baskets on that table. Please support these appeals generously. Thank-You.

THE PASTOR

In today's gospel, Jesus multiplies the loaves to feed the people. This was a needy crowd. They could not feed themselves or each other. They could not heal themselves or each other. Jesus was moved with pity and was ready to provide them all that they needed. The apostles wanted to send them away to fend for themselves. This hits upon the grain of truth that this is a miraculous action. Just five loaves and two fish—scarcely enough to serve as an appetizer but never mind the crowd. The apostles sheepishly complied when Jesus ordered that they surrender their scanty food supply. He blessed this meager offering and the miracle happened. It was not only enough, but after thousands had eaten their fill, there was more left over than what they'd started with in the first place.

Our financial resources, talents, and holiness are clearly inadequate to meet the needs of a hungry and confused world. This gospel commands us to offer these resources, anyway, trusting that God will multiply them. Imagine if the apostles had saved the five loaves and fish for themselves. This transformation, this multiplication, is a supernatural marvel that is the source of other marvels. In fact, if we to unpack just a fraction more of the miraculous power contained in the Eucharist, we, the Church and the world would be forever different. Christ has given all and asks for all in return. Not so he can take it away, but rather that He can multiply it. Never sell yourself short as God can do marvels in your lives.

Something to think about:

_If you think it's "unchristian" to secure our borders, remember this:

Heaven has gates. And not everyone gets in.

"Welcome to St Jerome Catholic Church! a place of mercy and hope where everyone is welcome!"
