October and May

For many years during October and May, St Jerome's parish has prayed the rosary each Tuesday before the 7:30pm Mass. This is a very fine practice and I want it to continue. However, it has become very difficult for me as the leader. Last May I goofed a few times and fell asleep as well. So, I recommend the following: I open the church at 7:00pm. Those who would like to pray the rosary should come early and begin the Rosary at 7:15pm. They should be finished about 7:30pm and then I will begin Mass. Those who come early may choose someone to lead the Rosary; or each may pray the Rosary silently. I pray the Rosary daily; but I am finished by noon each day

THE PASTOR

Today is World Mission Sunday. A multi-cultural Mass will be celebrated today, Sunday, October 18 at 5:30 pm at Immaculate Heart of Mary. Many people think missions and missionaries are in Africa, Asia, South America, when we can be missionaries right here, right now.

God gives to each person a unique mission. Some are called to very public lives; others are called to quiet and simple lives. Some are called to use their minds in powerful ways; others are called to use their hearts in special ways, but each person has a unique mission from God. What is your mission? Seeking to know what the Lord asks of you is essential to your journey of holiness and, therefore, happiness. When fully embraced, this mission will bring abundant fulfillment to your life because of one simple fact: every mission is a mission of Mercy. The struggle many people have is that they embark on selfish endeavors in life, failing to commit all their energies to the work of the Lord. The Lord wants you to minister day and night on His mission. This is not too much to ask. In fact, it's what you were made for and the only way to obtain what you truly desire. His mission will certainly include moments of fun and rest, work and struggle, laughter, and tears. It will also require a complete death to yourself. But it's worth it! Seek the mission God has given you and embrace it with all your heart.

Reflect, today, upon: What is my mission in life? It may come to you slowly, over time. Never stop seeking to serve our Lord and His perfect plan. This plan will become the delight of your soul. Ponder it and if you are on the wrong path, correct your direction in life. God will always lead you to the mission he calls you to whether here or abroad.
