Help Your Neighbor Day-November15 We have had a number of neighbors sign up for our Help Your Neighbor Services on November15-twice as many as last year. We could still use a few more volunteers. Last year we heard from a first-time volunteer, "Well, I wasn't really looking forward to it, but once I was at a neighbor's house helping, it was a truly rewarding experience."
It will be on November 15th, 12:30-4:30pm Arrive at SJF at 12:20pm, if you can help.

THE PASTOR

Timing is everything. The five wise women in our Gospel this weekend were able to go into the celebration with the bridegroom because they had planned to be ready when he arrived. They worked according to His timing, not theirs. The five foolish women missed their opportunity because they weren't ready. Their timing was off. Part of being a wise person is being sensitive to God's timing. Good opportunities often present themselves at inopportune times. We have to line ourselves up with what the Lord has brought our way instead of insisting He works on our timetable. Keep your eyes open for His timing and be ready to adjust your own plans. Be willing to put aside your schedule when Jesus knocks on the door. A wise person knows timing is everything.

All we do here on earth is preparation for seeing Jesus face-to-face. It may take longer than we thought, cost more than we were prepared to pay, and look different than we thought it would look. That's just how life is. That is why we have to spend time with Jesus. He fills us back up. It's wise not to give out all your oil to those who can receive their own oil from Jesus, but just choose not to. You're not helping them or yourself. Point them to Jesus. He has enough for both of you.

God's timing is definitely different than our timing. Archbishop Casey has asked me to take on new leadership at the Archdiocesan Pastoral Center downtown. He has appointed me Vicar of Clergy for the Archdiocese of Cincinnati. In this new role, I will spearhead the creation of a new department of pastoral and professional support that will be an immediate benefit to the clergy of the Archdiocese. I rely on the help of the Lord God in this new role and hope our clergy can be equipped with the necessary resources to live out their calling faithfully, successfully, and healthfully.
